~ Vegetables & Herbs ~

Fresh vegetables and herbs are the centerpiece of our farm. We grow a wide seasonal variety from spring greens to summer tomatoes to fall roots and everything in between. We plan a mix of traditional & specialty varieties each season including many time-tested heirloom selections. We use sustainable growing methods including crop rotation, cover-cropping, beneficial insects and organic soil amendments. No synthetic chemical fertilizers, pesticides or GMO seeds are ever used.

Winter Season

Winter Produce - fresh greens from our high tunnels plus a variety of storage crops. This year's shares should include: fresh greens (kale, lettuce, spinach), roots (carrots, celeriac, daikon, parsnips, potatoes, rutabaga, turnips), alliums (garlic, onions), winter squash, and the occasional extra seasonal surprise. To supplement our own farm harvest we will include a few items from other area farms that also follow sustainable growing practices. Every other week delivery. $250

Summer fruit shares feature a seasonal progression of berries (strawberries, raspberries, blueberries), tree fruits (cherries, peaches, plums, pears, apples), and melons. Some fruits come from our own fields, raised using sustainable growing methods. Most fruit comes from other area farms and is raised using conventional growing practices. Each delivery typically contains one variety of fruit, though we sometimes double up in peak season.

Stew hens are available by special order at the end of each season as a new cohort of laying hens takes over.

We raise a small flock of traditional broad-breasted white turkeys for Thanksgiving - reserve your turkey now as we always sell out!
